AUGUST 2013

WELCOME BACK TO SCHOOL!

My name is Alyssa Hall, and I am the Lower School Counselor at Harding Academy. This is my second year working in this position. Before becoming a School Counselor, I taught 1st grade in Arkansas for two years. I was able to attend Harding as a student, and I graduated with an excellent education in 2006. I am grateful to be back at Harding Academy, and I am excited to see what God has planned for our students this year.

My goal is to develop and maintain a successful school counseling program to reach and serve every child. Your child will be seeing me around the school building and in his or her classroom. My desire is that all children will feel comfortable coming to see me as needed.
